

ENGLISH

This term, children will be rewriting their own narrative based on the story 'The time travelling cat'. The children will learn how to use possessive apostrophes, relative clauses and inverted commas. Additionally, children will be writing their own suspense piece thinking about tension, coherence and literary devices.